

The Nelson A. Rockefeller Center
CLASS OF 1930 FELLOWSHIP

THE CLASS OF 1930 FELLOWSHIP, a program of the Nelson A. Rockefeller Center at Dartmouth College, was established by the members of the class to continue the tradition begun by President Ernest Martin Hopkins of bringing distinguished men and women to campus for brief visits. In addition to a major public address to the Dartmouth community, Class of 1930 Fellows meet with students and faculty in small group sessions and participate in classes.
