

Aaron Lecture History

This endowment fund, established in honor of Roger S. Aaron, Esq., 1964, was created in October 1996 from gifts from the Dartmouth Lawyers Association. The Aaron fund falls under the larger Daniel Webster Fund umbrella.

DANIEL WEBSTER UMBRELLA:

The Daniel Webster Fund umbrella was created at Dartmouth College to honor distinguished alumnus Daniel Webster, Class of 1801, a famous lawyer, orator, and statesman. The Daniel Webster Fund is intended to serve as an umbrella fund under which individual funds may be established to support the study of the role of law and justice, ethics and public policy in the lives of individuals and society as part of the liberal arts curriculum of Dartmouth College, and as an outgrowth of the College's Law and Liberal Arts lecture series sponsored by the Dartmouth Lawyers Association.
